1. Le Bulletin 2009-022 du 4 août 2009 fournissait aux membres du marché la version actualisée de l'“Options Disclosure Document” à fournir à leurs clients aux Etats Unis habilités à négocier les contrats d'options sur action et sur indice du MONEP disponibles sur le marché de Paris, en vertu de la “No-Action Letter” émise par la Securities and Exchange Commission des Etats Unis (la SEC). Un exemplaire de cette “No-Action Letter” est disponible sur le site Internet de la SEC à l'adresse : <http://www.sec.gov/divisions/marketreg/mr-noaction/scmc061796.pdf>
2. A la demande de certains membres et afin de leur permettre d'utiliser des documents de NYSE Liffe standardisés, ce Bulletin fournit aux membres du marché:
 - Un formulaire à renvoyer à Membership Authorisations chez NYSE Liffe lorsqu'un membre du marché a l'intention de faire usage de la possibilité de proposer à l'achat et à la vente les options appelées “Approved Options” du marché de Paris en vertu de la “No-Action Letter” émise par la SEC et plus généralement pour tous les marchés dérivés d'Euronext auxquels il a été accordé une “No-Action Letter” par la SEC dans ce but (à l'heure actuelle, seuls les marchés de Londres et de Paris bénéficient de “No-Action Letters”). Dorénavant, les membres devront donc utiliser le formulaire joint pour informer Membership Authorisations chez NYSE Liffe. Afin que NYSE Liffe puisse tenir à jour un registre complet du marché de Paris, il est également demandé aux membres qui proposent déjà l'achat et la vente de ces “Approved Options” pour le marché de Paris de remplir ces nouveaux formulaires standardisés et de les renvoyer à Membership Authorisations (à l'adresse figurant sur le formulaire); et

- Une lettre de certification standard, également utilisable pour tous les marchés de dérivés d'Euronext qui bénéficient d'une "No-Action Letter" émise par la SEC dans ce but, que les membres devront utiliser afin de s'assurer que les entités US avec lesquels ils sont en contact correspondent bien aux définitions de "Qualified Broker-Dealers" ou de "Qualified Institutions" au sens de la "No-Action Letter" dont il est question ici.
