INTRODUCTION OF SINGLE STOCK DIVIDEND FUTURES

Executive Summary

This Notice informs Members of the introduction of Single Stock Dividend Futures on the Amsterdam Derivatives Markets on 5 February 2015.

1. Introduction

- 1.1 Euronext intends to launch Single Stock Dividend Futures (SSDF) on the Amsterdam Derivatives Markets. Initially, 20 SSDFs will be listed on the Amsterdam market on 5 February 2015. The introduction of additional SSDFs will be announced by Notice in due course. An SSDF is a future on the cumulative value of ordinary gross cash dividends declared by the relevant company over a one-year period. The period starts on the day following the third Friday in December and ends on the third Friday in December (the expiry date) one year later.
- 1.2 The underlying value of an SSDF is the dividend payments in relation to a contract size of 10,000 shares. The tick size is € 0.0001 (€ 1 per contract) and open positions remaining after the last day of trading will lead to cash settlement. The full contract specifications are set out in attachment 1. The list of underlying values is shown in attachment 2.

2. Liquidity Provider information

- 2.1 For the full Liquidity Provider Programme specifications including obligations and benefits please refer to the Liquidity Provider Programme Info-Flash which is available on the Euronext website: <https://derivatives.euronext.com/elps>.
- 2.2 All Members are eligible to apply for a Liquidity Provider status. Members wishing to apply for a Liquidity Provider role should complete the Liquidity Provider Registration Form as explained in the Info-Flash.

3. Dividend rules

- 3.1 For the purpose of determination of the final settlement value (EDSP), the declared ordinary dividends are taken into account if their ex-date falls on or between the start and end date of the reference period of the relevant expiry. The dividend amount taken into account will be the amount as declared by the issuer without an adjustment for withholding taxes, tax credits or tax repayments.
- 3.2 Dividends that are declared special or extraordinary by the issuer are normally excluded.
- 3.3 If a dividend is distributed in the form of shares only and if this is regarded as ordinary dividend, the cash equivalent is taken into account. If no cash value is declared by the issuer, the cash value will be determined based on the official closing price of the share on the relevant cash market on the cum-day (the business day prior to the ex-dividend date).
- 3.4 If shareholders may choose between cash or shares, the cash option is chosen.
- 3.5 A dividend future refers to a dividend that is paid in the same currency as the trading currency of the dividend future. If a dividend is declared in another currency than the futures contract currency, the published equivalent amount in the futures contract currency will be used if investors have the option to be paid in that currency and if this amount is available on or before the ex-date (for clarification, the published equivalent amount should not be a converted value that is shown for informational purposes). If the dividend amount is only available in currencies that deviate from the futures contract currency, the dividend amount will be converted using the reference rate for the cum-day (the business day prior to the ex-date). In principle the reference rate will be based on the foreign exchange reference rates as published daily by the ECB.
- 3.6 For cases not covered by these rules, Euronext will determine an appropriate adjustment or repayment to be made.
