Shurgard opens new self-storage facility in London (Croydon Purley Way)

LUXEMBOURG – Shurgard, the largest developer, owner and operator of self-storage centers in Europe – is pleased to announce the opening of its new self-storage facility on September 30, 2020 in Croydon Purley Way. The construction project is part of the company's ongoing expansion in London.

Shurgard Croydon Purley Way is one of Shurgard's largest locations, offering over 1,200 storage units (70,000 sq ft) spread over four floors and a large car park.

With a wide variety of storage units from lockers to 240 square feet units, Shurgard is serving both individuals and businesses in London.

This brand-new facility offers many benefits for Londoners, including excellent access from the motorway, a large car park and a loading bay for convenient loading and unloading.

Shurgard currently operates 32 convenient storage locations - representing over 1.8 million square feet - near main roads and public transport right across the whole of Greater London and into the Thames Valley.
