AIR KBZ and MAI (Myanmar Airways International) launch Free Flow Code Share, enabled through TTI's Zenith® PSS (Passenger Service System)

AIR KBZ has launched a Free Flow Code Share agreement with MAI (Myanmar Airways International), enabled by the TTI (Travel Technology Interactive) Zenith® PSS (Passenger Service System). The launch of the Free Flow Code Share agreement provides AIR KBZ with greater distribution, increased traffic and wider brand awareness, boosting their Myanmar domestic network.

Mr Chooi Yee-Choong, CEO AIR KBZ said, 'we are delighted to have launched our first Code Share agreement, MAI's international network will bring new business to AIR KBZ, provide our shared customers with convenience through seamless connectivity and, this agreement underpins the strong partnership that already exists. Our IT provider TTI, has enabled this Free Flow Code Share via their Zenith® PSS (Passenger Service System) and we are very pleased with the results. We are already seeing a strong increase in both passengers and revenues'.

Mr Chooi Yee-Choong continued, 'the new Code Share with MAI comes at an exciting time for AIR KBZ, as we have also now launched our first International flights, to Chiang Mai in Thailand, which marks a new era for AIR KBZ and for Myanmar, the first steps in our ambition expansion plans.'

Mr Gregoire Echaliere, CEO, TTI (Travel Technology Interactive) said, 'TTI is honored to help AIR KBZ launch their first Code Share and to have supported them through their first international flight operations, to Thailand. We are privileged to have had a long relationship providing IT solutions to AIR KBZ and we are delighted with their recent business success.'
