Participation in the Shareholders' General Meeting and Exercising the Right to Vote

Shareholders shall be entitled to participate in the Shareholders' General Meeting, discuss and vote if they own at least one share at 00:00 hours of the Record Date, i.e. on the 19th of October 2023 (corresponding to the 5th trade day prior to the meeting). The exercise of voting right shall not be affected by the transfer of shares at any time after the Record Date nor shall it be dependent on their blocking between such date and the date of the Shareholders' General Meeting.

The share capital is divided into 102,565,836 shares without nominal value.

Every shareholder wishing to participate in the Shareholders' General Meeting shall state his/her intention in writing to the financial intermediary where the respective individual securities account is open, at the latest by 23:59 hours of the 18th of October 2023. This may be done by using the form available on the Company's website (www.cofina.pt) from the date of publication of this notice of meeting on.

The financial intermediary that is informed of its client's intention to participate in the Shareholders' General Meeting shall transmit this intention and send written information on the number of shares registered in the name of such shareholder, with reference to the Record Date, to the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting until 23:59 hours of the 19th of October 2023. In order to do so, the financial intermediary may send it to the email address sede@cofina.pt.

Shareholders who, acting as professionals, hold shares in his/her/its own name but on behalf of his/her/its clients and wish to vote in different directions with his/her/its shares shall, apart from submitting the documents mentioned above, present to the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting, until the 23:59 hours of the 19th of October 2023 by using sufficient and adequate means of proof, (i) the identification of each client and the number of shares entitled to vote on such client's behalf, as well as, (ii) the voting instructions given by each client for each point of the agenda.

The shareholders who, having stated their intention to participate in the Shareholders' General Meeting, sell the shares between the Record Date and the end of the Shareholders' General Meeting, shall immediately inform the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting and CMVM (the Portuguese Securities Market Commission). Regarding the information to be sent to the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting, the shareholders may send it to the email address sede@cofina.pt.

Right to apply for inclusion of items in the agenda, to submit proposals and to access information at the Shareholders' General Meeting

Pursuant to article 23-A of the Portuguese Securities Code, only shareholders holding shares corresponding to, at least, 2% of the Company's share capital are entitled to:

- i. Apply for inclusion of new items in the agenda, under the terms of article 378 of the Portuguese Companies Code, provided that this application is accompanied by a proposal to be submitted for each agenda item requested;
- ii. Apply for inclusion of proposals in relation to items included in the notice of the meeting or added to the agenda.

Requests for inclusion of new items, as well as the proposals to be submitted and any accompanying information, shall be addressed, in writing, to the chairman of the Board of the Shareholders' General Meeting in the five days following the publication of the notice, and shall be disclosed as soon as possible to the shareholders, in the same way used to disclose this notice of meeting, no later than ten days prior to the date of the General Meeting.

Any shareholder has the right to obtain information at a Shareholders' General Meeting, under the terms of article 290 of the Portuguese Companies Code and may request true, complete and clear information to help him/her to form an informed opinion on the matters to be decided. The duty to provide information includes details of relations between the Company and its related companies. Any information included in the previous paragraph shall be given by the qualified statutory body and may only be withheld if its disclosure might cause serious harm to the Company or to a related company or violation of secrecy imposed by law.

Representation at the General Shareholders' Meeting

Shareholders may be represented by means of a written representation sent to the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting, by e-mail to sede@cofina.pt, or by delivery at the Company's head office latest by 23:59 hours of the 23rd of October 2023. On the date of publication of this notice of meeting, the Company will make available a power of attorney minute on its website (www.cofina.pt) that may be used for such purpose.

A shareholder may appoint different representatives for the shares held in different securities accounts, without prejudice to the principle of unit of voting set forth in article 385 of the Portuguese Companies Code.

Correspondence Voting

Votes by postal and electronic correspondence are allowed, as long as the Company has its shares admitted to trading in a regulated market.

- (i) The vote declaration must be signed by the holder of the shares or by those who legally represent him/her, and the shareholder, if he/she is a natural person, must accompany the vote declaration with a certified copy of his/her identification document and, if it is a legal person, the signature must be recognized (by a notary, lawyer, or solicitor) as being in his/her capacity and with powers for the act.

The written declaration stating the shareholder's request to cast a postal vote must be delivered at the head office of the company, until the third business day before the scheduled date for the Shareholders' General Meeting, i.e. 23rd of October 2023, with the shareholders identification and addressed to the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting, provided that, proof of shareholder quality is given with reference to the Record Date, under the terms and within the period set out above.

Vote declarations must (i) indicate the point or points on the agenda to which it relates, (ii) indicate the specific proposal to which it is addressed, with indication of that of the proposers, as well as (iii) contain the precise and unconditional indication the voting direction for each proposal.

Votes cast by correspondence count for the verification of the constitutive quorum of the Shareholders' General Meeting, and the result of the voting by correspondence in relation to each item on the agenda is disclosed in the point to which it relates.

The postal vote issued shall be deemed to be revoked, in the event of the presence, at the Shareholders' General Meeting, of the shareholder who issued it or of a representative designated by him.

If the vote declarations omit the vote in relation to proposals presented before the date on which these same votes were cast, this shareholder will be deemed to abstain from these proposals.

The votes by correspondence are considered as negative votes in relation to deliberation proposals submitted after the date on which these same votes were cast.

It is the responsibility of the Chairman of the Shareholders' General Meeting to check the conformity of the declarations of vote by correspondence, and the votes corresponding to declarations that are not accepted will be deemed as not cast.

It is the Company's responsibility to ensure the confidentiality of votes cast by correspondence until the time of voting.

Ballot papers for points on the agenda are available at the company's website (www.cofina.pt) from the date of the publication of this notice of meeting on.

- (ii) Voting by electronic correspondence must be received under conditions equivalent to voting by postal correspondence, regarding intelligibility, guarantee of authenticity, confidentiality and other formalities. For this purpose, shareholders must complete the ballot's papers available on the Company's website (www.cofina.pt) and send it to the email address sede@cofina.pt, with the acknowledgments being replaced by a digital signature. Only electronic mail votes received in the above-mentioned email until 23:59 hours of the 23rd of October 2023, will be considered valid. To exercise the right to vote by electronic correspondence, the shareholders must use voting ballots that, in a clear and unequivocal manner, express their voting sense. For this purpose, they must use the templates available on the website, and send them electronically as an attachment to the address sede@cofina.pt.

If this quorum is not reached on the scheduled date, the meeting is rescheduled for the 16th of November 2023, at the same time and place, when no minimum quorum will be required.
