

Oxurion completes the acquisition of Axiodis CRO and accelerates the structuring of its European clinical data platform

- Oxurion announces the full completion of the acquisition of a 72% equity stake in Axiodis CRO
- This transaction marks the first step in building an integrated platform focused on clinical data
- The Group is intensifying discussions with additional strategic targets in France and across Europe

Leuven, Belgium, August 4, 2025 – 08:30 CEST – Oxurion NV (Euronext Brussels: OXUR), a biopharmaceutical company based in Leuven, today announces the full completion of its acquisition of a 72% equity stake in Axiodis CRO, a French company specialized in clinical data management and biometrics through its proprietary eCRF platform, Exagis.

Oxurion is pleased to complete this first acquisition, which represents a significant milestone in the execution of its external growth strategy. The Group will work closely with Axiodis CRO's management team to support its development and strengthen its positioning as a key player in the clinical data field.

Following this acquisition, Oxurion is accelerating discussions with other complementary targets, primarily located in France and other European countries, with the goal of building an integrated service platform focused on clinical data, combining regulatory expertise, data management, e-clinical technologies, and statistical analysis.
