Indicative proposal for shares

InPost announces it has received an indicative proposal for all shares

In view of the recent share price and trading volume development, InPost S.A. ("InPost" or the "Company") announces that it has received an indicative proposal regarding a potential acquisition of all shares in the Company.

A special committee has been formed of Supervisory and Management Board Members of the Company that will carefully consider all aspects of a potential transaction, ensuring that the interests of the Company and all of its stakeholders are taken into account in the decision making with respect to a potential transaction.

At this time, there can be no assurance that this will lead to a transaction.

Further announcements will be made if and when appropriate.

This is a public announcement by InPost pursuant to article 17(1) of the Market Abuse Regulation (EU) 596/2014. This press release may contain inside information as defined in article 7 of the Market Abuse Regulation (EU) 596/2014.

This public announcement does not constitute an offer, or any solicitation of any offer, to buy or subscribe for any securities.

About InPost S.A.

InPost (Euronext Amsterdam: INPST) has revolutionised e-commerce parcel delivery in Poland and is now one of Europe's leading OOH e-commerce enablement platforms. Founded in 1999 by Rafał Brzoska, InPost provides delivery services through our network of more than 56,000 Automated Parcel Machines (APMs) and almost 33,000 pick-up drop-off points (PUDO) in nine countries across Europe, as well as to-door courier and fulfilment services to e-commerce merchants. InPost's locker machines provide consumers with a cheaper and more flexible, convenient, environmentally friendly and contactless delivery option.
