Corporate information

The Reiseliv Holding AS is a limited liability company incorporated and domiciled in Norway. The Company was established in 2019 and the registered office is located at Sjøgata 8, Tromsø, Norway. Reiseliv Holding AS is the mother entity for the Reiseliv Holding AS Group (the Group).

The Reiseliv Holding AS Group, together with its subsidiaries provide various tourist and traveling experience services in Norway.

The consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022 are available at <https://www.norwegian.travel/no/investor-relations>

Accounting principles

These consolidated interim financial statements for the first half-year ended 30 June 2023 ('H1') are prepared in accordance with Norwegian Accounting Standard (NRS, Norsk regnskapsstandard) 11 'Interim Financial Reporting' ('Delårsregnskap'), the Norwegian accounting act and Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in Norway (NGAAP). This interim consolidated financial report contains condensed presentation and note information in accordance with NRS 11. Therefore, it does not include all information and disclosures required by Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in Norway (NGAAP) for a complete set of annual financial statements and should be read in conjunction with the annual report for the year ended 31 December 2022.

These consolidated interim financial statements are unaudited.

The accounting policies applied by the Group in these consolidated interim financial statements are the same as those applied by the Group in its consolidated financial statements for the year ended 31 December 2022, except for income tax (see profit or loss information section below). Because of rounding differences, numbers or percentages may not add up to the sum totals.

All amounts are presented in NOK unless otherwise stated.

Going concern

These interim consolidated financial statements have been prepared based on the going concern assumption. When preparing financial statements, Management has made an assessment of the Group's ability to continue as a going concern, considering all available information about the future and including, but not limited to, 12 months after the end of the reporting period. Based on that analysis Management has concluded that there are no material uncertainties related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt upon the Group's ability to continue as a going concern.

Significant changes, events and transactions in the current reporting period

In May 2023, the Group completed the acquisition of Artic Train Holding AS. Further information about this transaction has been included in Note 4.

The financial position and the performance of the Group was not particularly affected by any other significant events or transactions during the first half-year of 2023.

Profit and loss information

Income tax expense

Income tax expense is recognised based on Management's estimate of the weighted average effective annual income tax rate expected for the full financial year. The estimated average annual tax rate used for the current quarter is 22 % which is the same as the tax rate used for the comparable period.

Note 7 Share capital and shareholder information

As part of the share purchase of Arctic Train Holding AS, on 30 May 2023 the board of directors of Reiseliv Holding AS approved the issuance of 93 628 shares with a nominal value of NOK 2 (total increase of NOK 187 256 in share capital) and share premium of NOK 10 716 994. Out of the total shares issued, 28 088 were common shares and 65 540 preference shares. The equity issue was performed as a contribution in kind of the sellers credit the Group issued as part of the transaction. See further information about this transaction in Note 4.

On 9 June 2023 the board of directors of Reiseliv Holding AS approved an additional capital increase, by setting off a loan towards The Norwegian Travel Company Holding AS. The capital was increased by issuing 557 061 preference C shares to the Norwegian Travel Company Holding AS with a nominal value of NOK 2 (total increase of NOK 1 114 122 in share capital) and share premium of NOK 54 591 984. The share capital was registered on 26 July 2023. These preference C shares are a new type of shares held by the Group, and they give the holders a preference for payments of any proceeds from the the Group, and right for a share return of 8,5% per annum over its subscription price. Upon payment of the share capital and premium, and the share return, these preference C shares can be redeemed by the Reiseliv Holding AS. The holders can decide to convert the preference C shares into preference and common shares based on the fair market value of equity at the conversion/share exchange date (minimum NOK 600 million).

At 30 June 2023, the share capital, both registered and unregistered, amounted to NOK 11 607 076 and consisted of 1 687 443 common shares; 3 559 034 preference shares; and 557 061 preference C shares. Therefore, the total number of shares at period end was 5 803 538. Each share has nominal value of NOK 2 and same voting rights.

Note 8 Related-party transactions

The loan held with NTCH amounting to NOK 55,7 million was converted to equity on 9 June 2023. Further information about this transaction is included in Notes 6 and 7.

Additionally, the Group entered into a short-term loan with one of its related parties amounting to NOK 28 million at 30 June 2023. The short-term loan has been partly repaid in late August 2023.

The loans held with Norwegian Travel Company Holding AS ('NTCH') during the period generated interest expenses amounting to NOK 706 106.

There were no other significant transactions with related parties during the reporting period.

Note 9 Subsequent Events

The Board of Directors and the CEO is not aware of any other events that occurred after the balance sheet date, or any new information regarding existing matters, that could have a material effect on the H1 2023 interim consolidated financial statements for the Group.
