Interim financial report

For the period ended March 2024

momox Holding SE

Q1 Highlights

momox maintains momentum in Q1 2024

momox delivered a solid performance in Q1 2024, achieving EUR 93m in revenue despite ongoing economic uncertainties. While inflation and consumer confidence remain below pre-war levels (especially in Germany¹ and other European countries²), momox achieved a respectable 3% year-over-year growth.

This growth wasn't uniform across categories. Books & Media held steady with a 1% increase, while Fashion continued its turnaround with an impressive 11% revenue jump (second consecutive quarter of YoY growth after four quarters of decline).

Recent minimum wage hikes in Poland (18%) and Germany (3.3%) impacted our labor costs. To maintain our commitment to competitive compensation, we have implemented wage adjustments that ensure our employees continue to earn well above minimum wage. Shipping service providers also increased their rates at the turn of the year. Thanks to intensive contract negotiations, momox was able to keep the cost increase below the average inflation rate in Germany (4.5% vs. 5.9%³). On the other hand, momox was also in a position to push through higher sales prices on the market, so that the profit margin was largely compensated for.

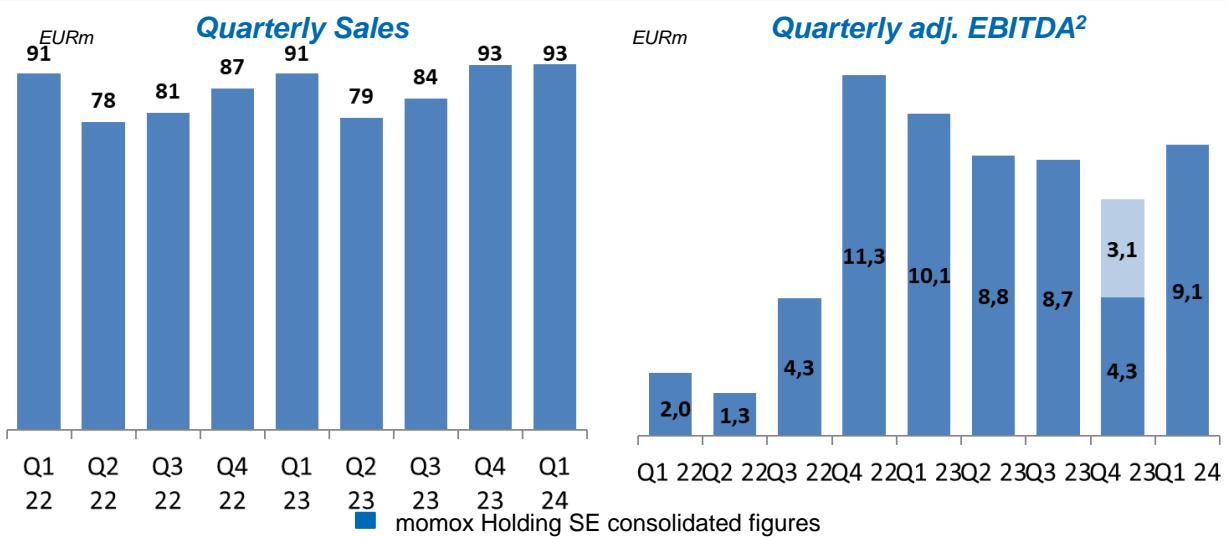

Despite only slightly increasing revenues and cost adjustments, momox maintained a healthy adjusted EBITDA of EUR 9.1m. The adjusted EBITDA margin² remained strong at 9.8%, compared to 11.2% in Q1 2023. No exceptional adjustments were made to EBITDA in this quarter.

Notably, the net leverage ratio improved significantly from 1.9 in Q1 2023 to 1.2 in Q1 2024, driven by a reduced NIBD (bond repurchases) and improved adjusted EBITDA (LTM).
