

Confirmation of Broad Compliance to IOSCO Principles for Financial Benchmarks

Euronext N.V. (“Euronext”) as a provider of indices and benchmarks confirms its broad compliance with the principles as an administrator within IOSCO’s final report on Principles for Financial Benchmarks published on July 17th 2013. Euronext Indices compliance programme focuses on the commitment to transparency, controls, governance and management of conflicts of interest.

While Euronext meets the goals of broad compliance at the group level, it expects to strengthen its procedures and processes to ensure full compliance of all applicable principles by year end for the index administration group (“Euronext Indices”) as a standalone business unit within Euronext.

All of Euronext indices are covered by this confirmation including the CAC 40®, AEX-Index®, BEL 20® and PSI 20®. As an index provider and calculation agent Euronext provides over 1000 indices or indicative values for the trading and tracking of index based products. Its indices are derived from stock prices from regulated exchanges.
